

Agricultural Events Rules & Regulations

- To use the facility only as assigned
- All entrances, exits and doorways must be kept clear at all times
- Smoking is not permitted in the facility in accordance with the City of Brandon Bylaw #6696
- All alcohol consumed on Keystone Centre property must be provided by the Keystone Centre and served in accordance with MLCC regulations. Non-compliance will result in removal from Keystone Centre property and appropriate charges applied
- All Food & Beverage services are to be provided by the Keystone Centre or it's approved supplier
- Pets – always on a leash, allowed in stabling and show areas only, not in concession vicinity
- All show participants must label each stall with contact information for after hour emergencies. (see attached form)
- The Keystone Centre is not responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged property
- The Keystone Centre will be reimbursed in full for wanton or accidental damages of it's property caused either directly or indirectly by individuals permitted by the user to participate in the use of the facility
- Use of motorized carts, scooters, gators, etc indoors is strictly prohibited unless authorized by Keystone Centre Management or for medical reasons.
- Facility users and visitors must comply with all environmental laws, rules and regulations
- Keystone Centre Management reserves the right to take all precautions and reasonable steps necessary to ensure the safety of the public, exhibitors and animals
- All Keystone Centre equipment must be operated by Keystone Centre employees unless authorized by Keystone Centre Management
- All parking regulations must be adhered, non compliance will result in vehicle ticketing and/or towing
- All livestock trailers and large equipment must park on the east side of the Keystone Centre
- Keystone Centre reserves the right to assign barn for show use
- Staples, nails and tacks are not to be used to attach articles to the horse stalls

Show Organizer: _____ Organization: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Keystone Centre Representative: _____